

~~SECRET~~Prefatory Note

The attached check-list of Soviet Officials Abroad is based on information covering 1940-48 and received prior to 15 June 1948. It contains the names of official diplomatic representatives and all employees in any capacity of Soviet embassies, legations and consulates throughout the world, and the names of commercial representatives, cultural emissaries, press correspondents, UN delegates, etc. In each case the position listed in the second column is the last one to have been reported. In cases where no information is available on the exact nature of an individual's duties, he has simply been listed as an employee. Diplomatic couriers, members of ecclesiastic and other temporary missions, and the rank and file of the Soviet military administrations in occupied areas and of temporary military or repatriation missions have not been included.
